December Newsletter now on sale at the back of church 50p

Christmas cards – after High Mass this morning Mothers' Union greetings cards, including a few Christmas cards, will be on sale in the parish centre.

Internal post – instead of using pigeon holes for Christmas cards, boxes will be provided at the back of the church from today until 14th January. For the convenience of all users, please try to arrange them alphabetically.

Healing Mass with anointing & laying on of hands is this Wed 13th Dec at 10am.

Church cleaning – we are having a church cleaning morning in preparation for Christmas on Saturday 16th December. All welcome and cleaning materials provided (plus refreshments!).

Silent Prayer Group – we meet at 8pm on Thursday 14th December.

Cambridge Foodbank Christmas Hamper Appeal – Sign up on Eventbrite to donate a hamper now, or contact Mary Ward for further info maryjward@btinternet.com. Alternatively, they still need cooking oil, soups, tea bags, sugar, ketchup, puddings, baked beans, tinned meat, fish, vegetables, pasta, breakfast cereals, small jars of coffee, fruit juice, UHT milk, chocolate and even Christmas themed food. Toiletries and toilet paper are always welcome too!
